Winter 2025 Collection

Designed for Living

Grounded sophistication, refined craftsmanship, and timeless appeal come to life through reimagined vintage aesthetics, soft industrial influences, and tactile materials. Artisanal techniques—drawing from hand-forged metals, sculpted ceramics, and woven fibers—introduce warmth and depth, balancing bold refinement with inviting character. Lighting becomes an intentional design element, shaping spaces with elegance, purpose, and style—indoors and out.

Reimagined Relics

Vintage aesthetics and classic industrial forms are thoughtfully reimagined. Rooted in heritage and elevated design, these future heirlooms are crafted to endure for generations.

CHANDLER MCLELLAN

Chandler McLellan brings a personal and artistic perspective to his debut collection with Troy Lighting. Inspired by the rugged beauty of Scotland—where his journey as a woodworker began—Chandler merges organic forms with modern craftsmanship to create lighting that feels warm, with a refined yet approachable presence.

Each piece is named after a Scottish place, reflecting the quiet elegance and enduring strength of its landscape. Thoughtfully designed to bring balance and warmth to modern spaces, the collection pairs natural materials with sculptural forms, inviting the beauty of nature indoors with a refined yet approachable presence.

“My goal was to design lighting that connects with nature while complementing modern spaces. Each piece is a testament to life’s organic beauty, offering warmth, balance, and meaning to interiors.”
